THE CONGRESSIONAL QUESTION.

It is impossible to tell at this time just how the congressional election stands in this district. All sorts of figuring is going ou, and while some bring out a small plurality for Mr. Winans—say from 100 to 200-others find that the result is in great doubt and that an official canvass will be required to fully determine who

There is no telling what Cleveland's majority will be in New York. It is put down at from 190,000 to 200,000. This is Mr. Conkling's political handiwork in New York. The people are becoming tired of the one-man power, and the tornado of public indignation is the result.

The best thing the republican party can do in the Wisconsin legislature, is to vote for the submission of a prohibitory amendment. The earlier this question is disposed of the better it will be for the politics of the state. The only effectual way to dispose of the question is to submis it and let it be settled once and for

This gives [the republicans only three congressmen out of the nine, a great falling off for Wisconsin.

The young men figured prominently in the elections of last Tuesday. In many of the large cities, the young business men of both political parties, formed independent clubs, studied the situation thoroughly, and voted for men whom they regarded the most entitled to their confidence and support. This was one of the prominent influences which elected. Cleveland by the greatest majority ever received by any man for a gubernatorial office in this country. They combined in Pennsylvania and boat General Beaver. Personally they liked the man as well as they did Pattiosa, but were opposed to the faction which he represented, and they laid him out. The great business | enterprises of this country are being carried on by young men, and they are making a move to unite their energies in purifying our political system. Their

The World says: "Instead of over forty counties in the state giving Republican majorities, the number is reduced to ten, and may not exceed eight, and even these give very meager majorities compared with former elections. Gen. Sicoum's majority for congressman-at-large, and William C. Ruger's for chief justice of the court of appeals, will reach, if it does not exceed, 125,000. The next house of representatives will be Democratice by 60 majority, or even more."

BUFFALO, Nov. 9.—Grover Cleveland, from all the figures being reached, and may even be passed. There is no telling where the majority at nearly 200,000. All the indications point to that figure being reached, and may even be passed. There is no telling where the majority will end, as the upheaval in the state is phenomenal. Cleveland takes his honors in his customary quiet way. At 930 a. m. ho was at his office discharging his duties as mayor as usual, and declining to hear a word on the subject of polities. When work was done he went to his law office and there met a number of visitors. An immense massmooting was held to-night opposite the Democratic club rooms in honor of Gen. W. F. Riogers, congressman olect. It was as good as announced by several speakers that the campaign of 1834 had been opened, and that Grover Cleveland will be the choice of the Democraty to succeed Arthur.

New Yerk, Nov. 9.—An extra issued by The Brooklyn Eagle gives Cleveland a majority at 174,600, and says the state legislature is strongly Democratic. INDIANA.

Hencock gives English, Democrat, 467 majority, Shelby county English, 126 majority, and Marion county, Pecie 643 majority. The Democratic committee do not concede his election, and claim the official vote will change the result. In Marion county the Republicans elect the clork, auditor treasurer, prosecuting attorney, and two judges of the superior court. The Democratic elect the shoriff, senator, five representative with Bartholmew county. Five hundred and forty voting places in the state show a Republican loss on the state ticket of 8,600, and Democratic loss of 2,341, being a net Democratic gain of 6,349, which would indicate a Democratic majority in the state of over 10,000. The above returns cover 36 per cent. of the vote cast at the election of governor two years ago. If the rest of the state yet to hear from continues the same relative decrease as compared with the vote of 1830, it will give a decrease in the Republican vote of 20,300 and of the Democratic vote of 5,000, of an aggregate

From the best figures obtained at this time the legislature will stand; Senators holding over, Democrats 0, Republicans, 14; elected, Democrats 18; Republicans S; doubtful 1; lower house, Democrats 65, Republicans 35. The Republicans lose their governor by $,000 oo 10,000 and carry the rest of the state ticket on 10,000 and carry the rest of the state ticket by an equal or larger majority. The legislature is Ropublican on joint ballot beyond doubt. In congressmen there are extraordinary changes. The Democrats, from present appearances, will carry Maybury in the First district, Eldredge in the Second, Yaple in the Fourth, Houseman in the Fifth, Winans in the Sixth, Carleton in the Seventh. Dalo, Dem., is elected by 500 majority. Col. John Russell was elected by 100 majority in the Ninetfell representative district. The Republican state and county ticket has carried the county by reduced majorities. St. John's majority in Cowley county, southeast of this place, has been reduced to 300, a loss of nearly 800. Republicans concede the defeat of St. John by 10,000. The leading issue was problished. A dispatch just received gives over 8,000 majority for Glick in 312 procinets.

be Democratic and Anti-Monopoly, four only out of the eighteen senators thus far heard from being Republicans. The rest are all shades of opposition. Republican counties gave the ticket the usual majority, but elected an opposition legislative ticket by a majority of 10 to 25 per cent of the vote. The house is also doubtful. A large number of counties are sending Democrats and Anti-Monopoly representatives. Weaver and Laird, congressmen from the First and Second districts, are elected by handsome majorities, while Valentine, in the Third district, is not yet out of the woods. His friends claim his election by a small majority, while the Anti-Monopoly men say Munger has 1,500 majority. It will take several days to decide the matter. Woman suffrago is buried under a mountain.

J. W. Dawes, Republican, is elected governor by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority. The usual majority is about 28,000. It has been cut down by the Anti-Monopolists and by the foreign element going over largely to the Democrats. The woman suffrago amendment has been buried out of eight, receiving only 1 vote in S. CONCORD, Nov. 9.—The Republicans elect both congressmen—Martin A. Hayos in the First and Ossian Day in the Second district. The legislature, which elects a United States senator is Republican by a strong majority. Halo (Republican) for governor, elected by 601 majority.

NEW JERSEY.

Newark, Nov. 9.—Latest roturns from the Sixth congressional district, comprising Essex county, give Fielder, Dom., 247 maj. The First district ofacts Forrel, Dem., over Robeson by 1,709. The Second district ro-elects Brower, Rep.; the Third. Kean, Rep., over Miles Ross, by 1,200. The Fourth district elects Howey, Rop., over Harris by 1,000 maj. The Fifth closts Phelps, Rep., over Ryle by 1,500. In the Seventh, McAdoo, Dom., is elected—majority uncorain. The logislature will stand; Senate, 12 Republicans; 9 Democrats. Assembly, 26 Republicans; 9 Democrats; 1 Independent. The Democrats have a clear majority on joint ballot, securing them the United States senator.

NORTH COROLINA.

Raleigit, Nov. 9.—The Democrats have elected every congressman except in the Second district, where O'Hars, Rep., had no opposition. The legislature is Democratic, although the Republicans made gains.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 9.—The aggregate major-y for the Democratic state ticket is overity for the Democratic same wholining.
In the Seventh or "black district," where no Democratic candidate, the contest was to be a local Better and there was no Democratic candidate, the contest was close between Leo, colored Rep., and Mackey, white Rep., but the latter is probably elected.

RICHMOND, Nov. 9.—The congressmen certainly elected are: Domocrats—G. D. Wiso, Third district, Treker Sixth, Barbour Eighth. Coalitionists—Libby Second district, Hooper Fourth, Paul Seventh, Bowen Ninth. The contest in the First district between Garrison, Domocrat, and Maye, Coalitionist, is close, Returns from that district are too meager to indicate the result. The same may be said about the Fifth district, in which the Democrats chaim Cabell's election over Sims. At Coalitionist headquarters the election of both Maye and Sims is claimed in addition to those named above. The Democrats generally concede the election of John S. Wise as congressman-at-large. The Coalitionists claim his election by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority.

MILWAUREE, Nov. 9.—Additional local returns make supe the election of five Republiturns make sure the election of five Republi-can and four Democratic congressmen, a Dem-ocratic gain of two. Ten Republican and seven Democratic state senators were elected, a Democratic gain of four. The next state senate will stand: Republicans 29, Demo-crats 13. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

It Lectures President Arthur and

the Stalwarts. NEW YORK, Nov. 9 .- The Tribune says: The defeat of the Saratogn ticket was overwhelming. There will be no mistake as to who did it. This is no victory achieved by the Democrats. Since the first appearance of the Republican party in national politics there has never been a time when the Democrats could command a majority of 120,000 in this state, or the half of it. Tuesday the Republicans defeated their own ticket as the only means left them of serving notice that they would no longer submit to be disfranchised at the convention and yet driven to ratify its nomina-tions at the polls. The tactics of the presideut's friends sufficed for Saratoga, but failed whon spread out over the state, and similar causes elsewhere have led to the same result. The figures in this state tell the story. The lowest obb the Republican party ever reached in New York was in the middle of Gen. Grant's Beandalous second term, when the Democrats had a majority of 50,000. Before that the Republican low water mark had been toward the close of Andrew Johnson's administration, when the Democrats reached nearly 48,000. The state went against Hayes in 1876 by 32,000 but that able and upright officer, so much abused by the architects of yesterday's colessal disaster, succoeded the very next year in reducing this figure to 11,000, and thenceforward carried the state by steadily increasing majorities. In 1878 it was Republican by 34,000, in 1879 by 42,000, and in 1880 by 44,000. Now in Mr. Arthur's nervoless hands, and under the malignant management of his friends, Republicans are driven to defeat their own party by a majority of 125,000. Mr. Arthur succeeded to an office to which no human being had thought of selecting him. He found the Republican party in triumphant possession of the country, and stronger with the people than it had been since theneral Grant's first election. Soe what a little over one year of his policy has brought his party. Tuesday's returns from more than half the sunion how. It is the loudest and harshest warning given in recent times to any president. The people serve notice upon Mr. Arthur that they will not tolerate his attempt to build up a faction at the expense of his aparty, will not tolerate the monstrous interference of his representatives in forcing unpopular nominations, and that they wish him hone-forth to diligently mind his own business. They are in the mood of the judge who wanted nothing more from that defendant but silence, and precious little of that, and they mean the same notice to apply to the underbosses like Cameron, who, within their respective previous, have pursued the same selfish and senseloss course. under the malignant management of

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

A Great Opportunity and a Great Responsibility.

New York, Nov. 9.—The World says: It is idle to attempt accounting for the result of Tuesday's election in this state by any causes local to the state. It is true that the Republican machine in this state has been a remarksbly compact and efficient machine, and that it has been managed by very able and unserupulous machinists. They nominated a good candidate for governor by questionable means as they had before by means equally questionable nominated bad candidates, but before the beaten factions had always turned in, after more or less grumbling, to help elect the bad candidates, and had elected more than one of the bad candidates. This time they have refused to support the good candidate, and have helped to bury him under a majority, whatever its proportions may candidate, and have helped to bury him under a majority, whatever its proportions may prove to be, which is utterly unpresedented, and atterly overwhelming. The causes of this latest and most momorable revolution in American politics are not far to seek. The "scandals of Grantism" were less influentiallin the elections of 1884 than the scandals of Robesonism have been in the elections of 1882. It has been anew domenstrated that the American poople, in hard times or in flush times, are not willing to be ruled by robbers. The time comes when they can no longer be railied to the support of a party by its name and its past achievements alone, when the name and the achievements alone, when the name and the achievements alone, when the name and the lapublican party saved the country and paid the dept and grew the crops, even if it had been true, has finally ceased, to the average American citizen, to be a valid reason why he should vote to prolong the reign of branded thieves and perjuters because they call themselves Republicans. It is no merit of the Democratic party, it is to the crimes and follies of the leaders when the Republican party has accepted that the Democratic party is or is not found to be ready to turn it to the best account for the party as the party is or is not found to be ready to turn it to the best account for the party as the country. All that can be said of the victory now is that it brings a great opportunity and a great responsibility.

The New York Times.

New York, Nov. 9 .- The Times says: The Republican party's message to President Arthur roads something like this: Mind your own business, which is not that of interferonce in the local politics of your own or any other state. Coase trying to be a ward politician and the executive of the nation at the same time. Leave men like John J. O'Brien, Stephen B. French and John F. Smyth to their own devices. Try to expand your political vision beyond the area to which you have been accustomed to confine it. You are not ignorant of the radinouts of statesmanship; advance beyond them, and confide in the people rather than in the politicians. Be assured that, when you intrigued to feist the claims of Roscoc Conkling on a disgusted constituency, you made a fattab blunder; that, when you hundly tried to console him under defeat with the judgeship of the supreme centr, you insulted the public intelligence; that, when you lent yourself to work his revenue and that of his master, Gould, against Cornell, you aroused the indignation of every thinking man in this state, and sowed distrust of your administration wherever honesty and manliness are reckned among political virtues. once in the local politics of your own or any

Senator McDonald on the Indiana Amendments,

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 9 - Sepator McDonald says the campaign in Indiana on the part of the Republicans has been conducted upon a delusive issue, so far as the prohibitory amendments are concorned. He says there are no prohibitory amendments before the neople, because Section 33 of Article 16 of the constitution provides that all amendments shall be entered on the journals of the two houses of the legislature, with the years and years. The years and nays appear in the jour-nals on the amendments, but the amendments This is the amendments, but the amendments do not appear as the constitution requires. This is the same condition of affairs as there was in fewa, upon which the courts declared the prohibitory amendments in that state unconstitutional. Senator McDonaid says the case is much stronger in this state, and there are no amendments before the people.

Mr. Rubbell on the Situation.

Jay Hubbell talked with a reporter about the result of the elections. He did not think the Republican party would be injured by any defeat it might sustain at this time. "It will do the Republicans good," he said. "Many win to the heptolicans good," he said. "Many of them have been grumbling because they couldn't have things just as they desired, and so became reckless, and said 'Let the party go.' There will be an awakening among itemplificans as a result of yesterday's cloctions. The party will flud out where its notions of civil-service reform will bring it."

The Sun on Gen. Butler.

New York, Nov. 9 .- The Sun says: congraiulate Gen. Butler, who has got what he has so long wanted. We congratulate Massachusetts, which has got what she has long moded. We congratulate Harvard college, which will now have the long awaited opportunity to confer upon this eminent citizen the title of dector of laws, and to receive him with proper honors when he goes over the Cambridge bridge to commencement next summer escorted by a company of lancers.

The Scaville Insanity Case.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. The case against Mrs. Scoville came up for argument for a new trial in the county court and the hearing was postponed to next Wednesday, at the request of Mrs. Scoville's attorney, Mr. Blanchard, who said his clientasked the postponement, as she had made up her the postponement, as she had made up her mind to return to the city, and desired to be present when the argument was made. Mrs. Scoville further wrote to her atterney that she had been examined as to her insanity by the superintendent of the insane asylum at New London, Canada, and all the leading physicians of that place, and had by all of them been pronounced perfectly sane. She proposes to lecture there to night.

English Misglvings.

London, Nov. 8.—The Telegraph says:
"Englishmen can hardly contemplate with equanimity the probability that the next president of the United States will be a Democrat as it is doubtful whether the changes the Demas it is doubtful whother the changes the Democrats are certain to introduce in the American tariff will be of advantage to England, and it is also worthy of recollection that the Democratic party was always deeply dyed in antagonism to England. Still, whether the elections resulted in a Republican or a Democratic victory, Englishmen may heartily wish their kinsmen delivered from machine politics, which are fraught with menace to the best interests of America.

The dead body of Fred. II. Doubledry was found in the store. Later another man, whose name is unknown, was found terribly burned about the legs. He was probably an employe.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR.

How He Voted and for Whom, and How His Precinct Went.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.- A little crowd gathered early this morning around the door of the small cigar shop in Third avenue, near Twenty-eighth street, where President Arthur reg. istered recently, waiting to see the chief executive vote. Presiding over all was a German policeman of large person and a serious cast of thought.

"Der praesident vill got left ov he komme here to vote," said the policeman. "Why?

"He will become challenged, and make no

The idea that Mr. Arthur's vote was to be challenged on the ground of non-residence had indeed got possession of the whole crowd, and kept them standing there, even when the cold rain drizzled down. By and by, a now idea got possession of the crowd. They decided that the prosident was afraid of being challenged, and would not put in an appearance. It was 10 minutes to 4 o'clock, and the crowd was getting ready to depart in pasce, when one small boy screamed to another small boy:

"Oh, look at him!" and pointed up the street. Coming down at a brisk pace was the full and commanding figure of the president of the United States. The crowd rushed up against the German policoman and thence into the store, leaving only room for Mr. Arthur to pass. and kept them standing there, even when the the German policeman and thence into the store, leaving only room for Mr. Arthur. The pass.

The clerk yolied "Chester A. Arthur." The president laid four ballots on the beards, one by one, while the crowdenrysel up against him without the faintest atom of respect. Having voted without challenge, he turned and went out, the crowd making way for him gradgingly. As he passed through the crowd he courtbously raised his hat. Not a hat was raised in return, and he walked quickly away, "Dot vos der most disgraceful vay to dreat a president," growfed the German policeman to the unantmerly felters.

An inspector took the liberty of inspecting the president's four ballots. It is said that the president's four ballots, It is said that the president's four ballots, It is said that the president had voted only for Folger, for O'Brien, and for the free canads and judiciary amountments.

In President Arthur's district, the second election district of the Eighteenth assembly district, Cleveland get 210 votes and Folger 90. In 1880 Hambock's majority in the district was 7.

Postmașter General Howe's Opinion. WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 9.-Postmuster-General Howe was sitting at his deak with his eyes fixed upon some object in the street. when a reporter entered and underknown the object of his visit. Mr. Howe spoke slowly and evidently measured the meaning of every word he uttered. Said he, substantially: "Several causes have combined to defeat the Republican party. The chief cause no doubt was the bitter factional fight in the party which were confined to no particular section, but extended all over the country. In no section was the party united. Perhaps in Kew tion was the party united. Perhaps in New York this feeling was manifested more openly than anywhere else. There was no man in the state who could say Judge Folger was not as good a man, as able a man, as Cleveland, and yet he was defented, for the same reason that operated against the Republicans all over the country.

"I am not now," said he, continuing, "prepared to give an opinion. I am not, however, sanguine chough to chain as bleasings events that come disguised as these do. I would rather have my bleasings come somewhat differently clothed. I do not pretend to say that the Republican party cannot recover from this wreck. The question with me is whether we will find wreckers more moreiful than the storm has been."

The conclusion, Mr. Howe said he did not regard the defeat as a howing a lack of confidence in or distrust of the administration.

Assistant Decreatery Joslyn said he regarded the defeat as a foremomer of certain victory in 1884. Its effects would be to unite the discover that unless they pulled together there would not be anything worth quarroling over.

Grover Cleveland Interviewed.

Buffalo, Nov. 9. - "Are you surprised at the figures?" queried a reporter of Grover Cleve-

"Yes," the governor-elect answered, "they surpass my expectations by many thousands." "How do you account for such a revolution; is it the unpopularity of the Stalwart administration, or the turning of public sentiment to the Democratic party?" asked the correspondent.

"It is chiefly the former," was the reply.

"Many things have occurred to bring the Republican party into disrepute, but the innucliate cause is the interference of the national administration with state politics. The Democracy will only be able to repeat this victory by maintaining the present larmony, and proving to the public that the chance and proving to the public that the change means reform and good government."

"Does it prove victory in 1884?"
The result in 1884 will depend almost entirely upon the conduct of the two parties during the intervening periods," was the governor's answer.

Again, Mrs. Forbes, wife of Mr. R. G. Forbes, Tilsonburg, Ont., through Mr. C. Thomson, druggist, says: "She was ailing for years with Biliousness and Dyspensia and was reduced to a more skeleton, but through the use of Zopesa entirely re-covered and has gained 38 pounds."

We could present very many such, but have not the time nor space. Zopesa is not a cure all, but acts directly upon the liver, kidneys, and stomach, correcting the digestion, giving activity to the liver and health to the urine. BOWLES.-Died in Shapiere, October 23, 1882, of nervous prostrution, Launa Wilson Bowles, wife of Mr. A. M. Bowles. Deceased was born in Harmony, Maine, April 17, 1848, and with her parents came west in 1886; was married to her now bewest in 1000; was married to her now be-reaved partner, November 17, 1867, at Brodhead, Wis., by her father, Rev. W. J. Wilson, of the Wisconsin conference. Two children were given them as the fruit of their union. She, with her hus-hand, moved to Nebraska, October, 1872, where who remained till the fall of 1879. where she remained till the fall of when she returned and settled at Shopiere, where she spent the remainder of her life. Her health had continued to fail for four years, during which she suf-fered much, but her sufferings were endured with christian patience, resigna-tion and courage. Her life, though brief, had in it much that was beautiful and worthy of imitation. Her education was liberal, and her mind refined and of an elevated order. Those loved her best who knew her most. The husband has lost a choice boon, the children an educator and guardian of their youth, the community the light of a beautiful christian example, which is always a benediction to society; the church one of her lights, by which others are helped heaven ward. LAURA WILSON BOWLES, [The following beautiful poem, written while in Nobraska, reveals the quality of her mind and heart, inserted at the request of friends, en-titled, "When I am Dead."]

When I am dead,
Oh, let no grief my spirit mar
Be gloom and dark repining for.
Still let the gleam of Faith's bright star
Be sweetly shed
Around thy pathway. Let no dearth
Of hope, despoil thy bliss on earth,
When I am dead.

Thou lov'st me well,
I feel thy heart will sink to know
That I am lost to thee below;
Yet that bright world to which I go,
With love oeer-sproud
Is wide; there's room enough for thee,
And thou may'st hope to come to me,
When I am dead.

My life with thee

Has been too happy, far, to last, loy so intonee files quickly past, Till it is fled.
But oh, how sweet our loys will be, in yonder blest eternity, where I shall rest, and wait for the When I am dead.

When I am dead.

No sorrow's there.
We shall not part. The dwellers there Ne'er part again. That region fair is free from all this earthly care,
All gloom is fled,
From weary bearts and tear-dimmed eyes.
Then mourn not, dearest, strive to rise
To meet me there—beyond the skies.
When I am dead.

Obituary.

EDWARD W. AUSTIN.

Mr. Austin was born in Salem, Mass. January 18th, 1795. While in childhood his parents removed to Vermont. In 1813 he was united in marriage to Miss Han-nah Corliss. In the fall of 1836 with his family he went to LaPorte, Indiana, where he remained till the following where he remained the the following spring, when he located permanently in the Fox River valley, at Dundee, Kane county, Ill. Here he resided for more than forty years. He was during this period a prominent citizen of Northern Illinois, taking an active part in town, county and state affairs, and was frequent. county and state affairs, and was frequently called to the occupancy of official positions, the duties of which he discharged in the most faithful manner. He was an influential member of the Illinois legis-lature in 1849-50, and was chairman of the house committee on finance. [He was a self-made man, of good strong common seuse, of indomitable energy, courage and perseverence, generally accomplishing what he undertook. For several years he was a prominent member of the Baptist church in Elgin, Ill., but always liberally inclined, contributing generously to the upbuilding of other denominations. His appuilding of other denominations. His family of nine children were brought up to observe the Sabbath and the institutions of religion. For several years before his death he was a Universalist, with a special approval of Spiritualism. He boro his long illness with great patience, waiting quiety and hopefully for his departure, which occurred, Nov. 4th, 1882, having nearly completed his 88th year. He ing nearly completed his 88th year. He resided last at Milton Junction, whither ho went some four or five years ago, accompanied by his faithful daughter, Mrs. II. Langley, formerly of Richmond, Wal-worth county, by whom he was watched over tenderly and lovingly to the last. Faneral services at his late residence, was conducted by Rev. G.W. Lawrence, at Mr. A's request, assisted by Rev. M. G. Todd, on Monday 6th, at 5 p. m. The remains were taken to Dundee, Ill., on Tuesday, for interment.

Keeping Winter Squashes.

Many farmers are at a loss to know how some are successful in keeping their squashes in good condition until May or June, while they lose most of theirs before the end of February: they usually attribute their want of success to causes beyond their control, when a careful investigation would show that mismanagement was the principal cause. Squashes to keep well must, be well ripened; second, they should be gathered before heavy frosts come; third, should be well dried; fourth, the shell should be well glazed over, and while it need not be thick it should be hard; fifth, they should be kept where the temperature is very even, never very cold, or very hot; sixth, in handling great care should be taken not to bruise them; this is of the highest importance. Many farmers leave their squashes out until the frost kills the vines, the squashes are thus left exposed to the cold winds, and they are frequently left until it is cold enough to freeze water, and change the color of the tops of the squashes; this is fatal to their good keeping. Others, when they find that cold weather has come, hurry them in just as night sets in, and in their haste to get them under cover, they load them into the wagon as though they were stones; thus bruising nine out of every ten to a degree that causes them to rot by Thanksgiving time.

Squashes are often stored in the barn in one heap, until they get chilled, when they are carried into a warm, damp cellar, where they soon rot, and the owner is at a loss to known the reason. When stored in heaps, if the storehouse be dry, the under squashes will send out moisture in such quantities as to keep the whole heap surrounded by moisture. Squashes, to keep well, should not only be kept in a dry atmosphere with a very even temperature, but they should be spread on the floor, or on shelves, so that the air can readily pass between

All of the soft shell and unripe squashes should be disposed of as soon as possible after they are harvested, and only the hard shell and perfectly ripe ones should be kept for winter; crookneck squashes keep best, with most people; the reason probably is, they are ripe and are handled with care and are usually hung up in a dry place. same treatment of marrow squashes would no doubt secure very satisfactory results. - Massachusetts Ploughman.

were lighted in different parts of the city. -A delegation of ladies and gentlemen from Beloit were in attendance at Prof. Severance's dancing school, last evening. -Apples from Michigan and eastern orchards are beginning to come in this city by the car load, and the indications are that our market will be well supplied. -Mr. Dug King received a telegram from Postmaster Moak, of Watertown, this evening, saying that Winans' majority iu Jesterson county is a little over --Nothing of importance was done in eitherIthe circuit or municipal courts today; Judge Bennett's circuit court has taken a recess, and Indge Patten is waiting for something to turn up. A dam Biglie's telegram concerning election returns from Jefferson county, dropped on the walks for enthusiastic politicians to pick up, was a pretty good sell, but did not work very well here.

-There will be a social party at the Old Fellows' hall, this evening, in which members of the order and their families only will participate. Good music will be in attendance, and a good time had generally.

-The next public dance will be that of Rescuo hook and ladder company, to be held on Thanksgiving eve, in Cannon's hall, and the members are preparing for their annual good time. All who attend will enjoy the party. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music.

His lecture "Voltaire" is one of the most popular over delivered before an American audience His thought is more concerned with the infidelity which that brilliant and erratic Frenchman professed than with the man himself. In no sense does he assail him, but gives him all the praise that any just admirer can claim. But the infidelity which he taught and which others after him have taught. he assails with a logic the most remorseless, a brilliancy of rhetoric that is wonderful in its style of beauty, with a power of true eloquence seldom surpassed. NIGHT OF REJOICING.

The Ratification Meeting at Lappin's Hall Last Night: The Independents and Democrats Glory in What They Have Done-1 Cane Presented to Mr. Winans.

The independents and democrats met in Lappin's hall last night to celebrate the success of their work in the first congressional district. The hall was packed and the audience was very outhusiastic The Catholic temperance band discoursed the music, and Mayor Croft presided. A large number of prominent independents and democrats were on the stage, and speeches were made by naerly a dozen of them. The Hon. D. B. Barnes, of Delavan, made the opening speech. He was followed by Mr. Fethers, Hyzer, Nowlan, William Smith, J. B. Doe, Jr. E. W. Couable and Dr. Von Suessmilch, of Delayan, and Mr. Winans, when the speech-making was concluded, an elegant gold-headed cane was presented to Mr. Winans, The presentation was made by Mr. Doe, in behalf of the young independents who had _au active part taken the campaign. Of course Mr. Winans responded and as his remarks were well-timed, very appropriate for the occasion Mr. Winans said he labored under great embarrassment in addressing the meeting. He surely ought to rejoice with all his friends in the great victory won, but he was oppressed by a sense of the responsibility put upon him, and which he must tread for two years. He assured his friends that they would find that their confidence had not been misplaced, and he again renewed his pledge that his actions in congress should be independent of any party. He referred feelingly to the noble work his friends had done for him, thanking Mesers, Fethers, Hyzer, Doc, Wm. Smith, and the gentlemen present from Walworth county. He referred in a happy manner to the "kids" that they should live forever in his memory, and closed by again returning heartfelt thanks to all the friends who had labored to secure his election. The demonstration was quite a there was a number of transparencies
